A Tribute to MRS. JOHN WALKER

A loyal and kind friend of Maryville College, Mrs. John Walker believes with true Christian vision in the ideas and ideals of the College of which she has become a generous benefactor. Her charming home in the College Woods typifies her own friendly and cultured nature. And so to Mrs. John Walker, in grateful appreciation for her many beautiful and enduring gifts, we dedicate this, the thirty-fourth volume of the Chilhowean.

The old corduroy road where the new entrance and drive leads past Voorhees chapel to Baldwin Hall.

All students appreciate the stately Carnegie steps, a symbol of a substantial college home.

Foreword

In future years, when reminiscing, should these modest pages arouse happy memories of friends and life at Maryville College, our purpose will be fulfilled—our task a success.

With a happy smile and a confident step we open our pages. May the thoughts of every reader always be as gay and youthful as this carefree scene of two of our students.

Perhaps it is profound knowledge that attracts the attention of all the students in Dr. Griffiths' chemistry lecture room. On the other hand, could it be that Dr. Griffiths is telling another of those famous jokes?

Inside one of the well-equipped Maryville laboratories we see experiments of all sorts. Please notice the concentration given to the more serious things of the lab; such as textbooks, chemical compounds, and people's faces.

The inside of the Maryville College bookstore and post office, where all the textbooks used by the students are purchased. The combination bookstore-post office is run by students.

POST OFFICE

The twice-daily mail delivery brings out eager eyes and laughing faces in anticipation of a letter from home.

SCOT GRIDMEN

TOP—The Scotties dressed up to close a successful season with their annual banquet.

SIDE—Clothes make the man—but it took more than shoulder-pads and heavy cleats to make football men of the Scots in the picture; and what it took, they had.

Confucius say, "Quiet study profiteth one much."

"Whence is thy learning? Hath thy toil o'er books consumed the midnight-oil?"

GIRLS' DORM

"The windy satisfaction of the tongue."

MEN'S DORM

"We have been told to be bold, and to take the bull by the horns."

SUPERVISOR OF WOMEN . . .

Mrs. Grace Pope Snyder, Supervisor of Women's Residence, often takes time to have a friendly chat with the students under her care.

College men find Mr. E. E. McCurry, "Mr. Mac," a "regular fellow." As supervisor of Men's Residence, he has the respect and friendship of hundreds of students and alumni.

SUPERVISOR OF MEN . . .

DIRECTOR OF STUDENT HELP . . .

Miss Clemmie Jane Henry is our sympathetic and efficient Director of Student Help. Her experience and wisdom has made easier a still difficult position.

After very few years at Maryville, friendly, eager-to-serve Dr. Frank D. McClelland, Dean of Students, has become one of the well-liked members of the faculty.

DEAN OF STUDENTS . . .

"Did I hear two? That smile's worth a million. Who'll say two dollars?
Two? Going—Going—"

Formals blossom when the artists come to college. Here a group of students arrive for the Kipnis concert.

Parlor couples planning heaven; Matron enters—ten of seven. Exit heaven!

A bench, a friend, and a smile—an invitation to forget books a few moments. Who wouldn't accept?

"He was a scholar and a

WORK

The office used to be a place for men. Then women took it over, and now——it looks like men do the dishes. Is everything in reverse?

Ah! This is more like it! She can also cook. Keep in line please.

"Sons of the night, and maids who love the moon."

"Six-thirty? I just now went to bed. The sun must be wrong."

The editor and business manager sign their Chilhowean contracts. They don't look worried—yet.

Bar-flies? Don't be silly. It's the Y. M. C. A. store.

Trainer McGaha tickles heavyweight wrestler Henschen. Or is that a grimace?

MARYVILLE MERMAIDS

Fellows and girls alike know "the water's fine" in the pool all through the school year. It's one of the most popular ways at Maryville to keep in shape.

The efficient and able management of the Personnel Office retains its composure even during the rush of registration.

Maryville prides itself on being a low-cost college of high rank. So students don't mind visiting the Treasurer's office when bills are due.

SAMUEL TYNDALE WILSON

PRESIDENT EMERITUS

Samuel Tyndale Wilson, M.A., D.D., LL.D., Litt.D., has been connected with Maryville College as student, professor, President, and President Emeritus since 1873. Although no longer active in collegiate affairs, the memory of his service has been a moving spirit and an inspirational guidance since his retirement in 1930. Undoubtedly a most revered figure, Dr. Wilson has contributed more to the cause of Christian education than any other single figure in the history of Maryville College.

Following his graduation from Maryville in 1878, he spent two years in the mission field and in 1882, he was called to the college to teach. From that time on he has been closely associated with this institution.

RALPH WALDO LLOYD

PRESIDENT

Ralph Waldo Lloyd, B.A., B.D., D.D., has been president of Maryville College since 1930. The great progress of the college in the past years is due principally to his energy and efforts. Dr. Lloyd has demonstrated remarkable ability as a Christian leader, and is known throughout educational circles for his experience and enthusiasm. He is intensely human and possesses a great breadth of interest. His uncanny insight into student nature and his sympathetic treatment thereof commands the respect of all.

Graduated from Maryville College in 1915, he received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from McCormick Seminary in 1924, the title of Doctor of Divinity from his Alma Mater in 1929.

JAMES HOWARD ETHEREDGE	President
PATRICIA JOY CORRIGAN	Vice-President
RALPH VIVIAN REED	Treasurer
RUTH ELIZABETH MACK	Secretary

President James Etheredge, more commonly known as "Joe," is from Alabama. His quiet exercise of authority has made him a record holder in friendship as well as in athletics. Captain of the football, basketball and track teams, his athletic ability is exceeded only by his personality as a true "Southern" gentleman.

Vice-President Patricia Joy Corrigan comes to us from Canada. Her very name speaks for her personality—cordial, cheerful and charming.

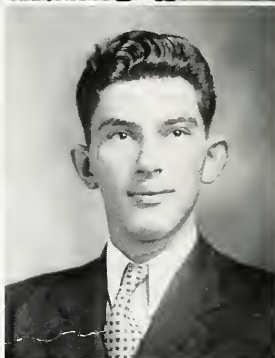

Treasurer Ralph Reed is one of our best-liked students. A courteous personality, his ability is respected by all.

Secretary Ruth Elizabeth Mack—"Ruth." Intellectual, efficient, collegiate in a serious way, Ruth has now become, in addition to her other accomplishments, an aviatrix. Look up if you would find her.

President William Baird—modest, earnest, sincere, Bill has made a name for himself as an all-around good fellow. His rivals in any of his many athletic contests will testify to his good sportsmanship.

Vice-President Louise Darden's vivacity contributes only a small part to her attractive personality. Her social, athletic, and scholastic activities compose a well-rounded college life.

Secretary Lily Pinneo—although of a quiet nature, her leadership is recognized by all of her acquaintances and friends.

Treasurer Gordon Findlay—energetic, ambitious, loquacious, Gordon seems to know what he wants and how to get it.

The Annual Tug-o-war Between the Sophomores and Freshmen Where for the First Time the Two Classes Pull Together.

THE UNDERCLASSMEN '42 AND '43

Texas, Ohio, Georgia, Wisconsin, Tennessee and Missouri are represented in the offices of the underclassmen. Typical of Maryville College as a whole, it shows one way in which Maryville's educational program becomes more than a program of books and courses for the student. Perhaps one of the greatest benefits underclassmen derive from Maryville is this fellowship with those from other sections of their country.

Underclassmen at Maryville are not underdogs as at several institutions but are of equal standing with juniors and seniors. They are represented by members of their own classes in the student council.

Between the freshmen and sophomores exists a spirit of friendly rivalry that demonstrates itself in the annual tug-o-war. This year the contest was won by the sophomores.

The Maryville College "Y" with its athletic, social and spiritual programs welcomed approximately two hundred men into membership this year.

Through ever-growing and progressive changes the "Y" has increased its membership and strengthened its leadership and fine Christian influence.

Today all who are connected in any way with the "Y" will vouch for its high standards and noble purposes.

Sixty-three years ago the first president, Silsby, stated these words: "The object of this organization will be to promote religion and pure Godliness among young men." I think that we can safely say that our Y. M. C. A. is trying to make that objective a living realization.

A valuable part of the college life of the women of Maryville is supplied by the Y. W. C. A. This organization was founded in 1894, and since then it has grown to include in its program many varied activities.

The Y. W. C. A. reaches out to every girl on the campus through the Y. W. services, the "Big Sister" movement, the Nu Gamma Sigma groups, the Artist Series, the International Relations Club, the Interracial meetings, the "M" Book, the "Y" Store, athletics, orphanage and mission work, Barnwarming, and May Day.

It is the purpose of the Y. W. C. A. to create a place in its activities for each girl on the campus, and to make the years spent at Maryville a time of Christian fellowship.

On this foundation the Y. W. C. A. has organized Nu Gamma Sigma. It is with sincere interest that each leader introduces her group of ten girls to campus life and college activities. On four Sunday afternoons those co-eds meet together to become closer friends and to discuss common problems. A short devotional service in the college woods with all groups joining in to prepare the breakfast which follows brings to a happy climax this series of meetings.

Nu Gamma Sigma aims to help each new girl find her place on the campus, in order that she may realize the most from her college experiences.

During a "rush week" with roof garden glamour of Hotel Bainonian the new girls were introduced to the spirit of friendly cooperation and fellowship that has continued through the year.

Song-fests around the campfire, Freshmen dressed in sheets and stumbling in the dark attic of Thaw Hall, Mrs. West and "Young Mr. Lincoln," sketches and impersonations of the faculty, a splash party, "Escape to Life," Athenian's barber-shop quartet, Professor Quiz, Bainonian-Athenian production—all these were the highlights of the year's fun.

As the year 1939-40 ends Bainonians still proudly sing:

"Bainonian! Bainonian!
Deep graven on each heart;
We'll remain unwavering, true
When we from college part."

Athenians returned this year to a newly-decorated hall and a newly-organized society. A committee, headed by the vice-president, Paul Brown, had last year written a new constitution that dropped the name "literary" from the title of the organization and made other changes conformable to the new purpose, that of a social society. The changes in the decoration of the hall were made at the direction of the new vice-president, Charles Baldwin. The year started with a hamburger fry at the college picnic grounds and progressed with the usual Saturday night programs, highlighted in January by its "Professor Quiz" program when five faculty members were "put on the spot." April 19, it presented, with Bainonian, the annual mid-winter production. It has been a year of pioneering by college hill's pioneer society. A year that has made a stronger foundation for the future.

A large group of girls working together and enjoying every minute of the work—that's Theta. Achievement, distinction, and influence represent the result of this work.

The year, 1939-40, has not been a leisurely one for Theta Epsilon. Beginning with a rush week spent in Hawaii, the year has been crowded with outstanding events. Most interesting programs weekly, a joint party with Alpha Sigma, the play "Winterset," and constant fun together made the year an important one.

Each term, since 1894, girls have entered Theta, determined to continue her notable success. Theta's motto signifies advancement:

"Si deus nobiscum, Quis contra nos."

Alpha Sigma of 1939-40 has been like the Alpha Sigma of years past, when high ideals, big accomplishments, and wonderful fellowship characterized its activities. Since 1882, Alpha Sigma has occupied a prominent place on the campus and in the lives of its members. Originally organized for purely literary purposes, Alpha Sigma has swerved from that first purpose in order to create a more balanced program.

This year the society opened its program with a jamboree for old and new members in their newly decorated hall. Musical programs, Professor Quiz Hour, special speakers, and the reading of original plays and stories were some of the outstanding Saturday evening programs.

Alpha Sigma has not fallen from its high standard, and the men it loses by graduation this year will carry on in the world with that same spirit of progressiveness that characterizes their society.

The Maryville College Law Club, organized six years ago to promote interest in the study of law as a profession, is composed of thirty-seven students from the Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes. Membership is confined to those who wish to familiarize themselves with features of the legal profession with a view to entering it as their chosen life work. During the past year interest was furthered through group discussions of the various problems and phases of the legal profession, through addresses by prominent East Tennessee attorneys, and through three mock trials sponsored and conducted by members of the organization.

"Not to be ministered unto, but to minister" (Matt. 20:28). Following the example of the Lord whom they serve, the ministerial students formed the Ministerial Association in 1900 to provide a fellowship for men preparing themselves for the Gospel ministry, to promote the study of God's word, and to unite with others in bringing the Gospel to neglected areas in and around Maryville. The "Holy Week Meditations" are conducted by the Association for the entire student body and faculty to focus attention on the meaning of the Sacrificial Death and Resurrection of Our Lord for individual lives.

The Maryville College Choir, composed of thirty-seven students, has this year seven senior members who have contributed much toward the proficiency of the choir which had sung fifty-three anthems from the beginning of the school year until Christmas. Outstanding soloists were Bernice Cathcart, Ruth Woods, Richard Woodring, and Ralph Reed, all of whom are seniors.

The Choir sings at the daily chapel services, at the Easter Sunrise service, and at the Sunday evening Vesper service, for which they practice at least two hours a week. Actually, the Choir puts in much more time in preparation for its appearances; and in addition to the forementioned, it forms a nucleus for the choruses of "The Messiah" and the yearly opera, hich this year was the "Bohemian Girl."

FOOTBALL RESUME

The colorful Highlanders of 1939, spirit and skill filling in for weight and power, came through a memorable season. Highlights of the year were as sparkling as the record books can produce. A light aggressive line and a fast quartet of pony-backs uncorked an offensive threat that nearly downed the conference champs. Only against King, with an injury-slowed squad, did the Scotties fail to score. Captain Etheredge and his mates' air raids seemed to penetrate any amount of opposing beef.

The season record, in short, was four wins, five losses and one big tie. Coaches Honaker and Thrower built the '39 machine from a small squad riddled by the losses of outstanding seniors last year. Without the weight of last year's team, they drilled the team to a polished, hard-driving, quick-scoring outfit that stands high in gridiron glory of the Orange and Garnet.

In the 1939 opener against the Union Bulldogs of Kentucky, Maryville eked revenge for last year's setback. The game forecast the Scot aerial excellence with a Honaker to Etheredge pass scoring the winning touchdown.

In the first conference game, the Scots showed their offensive magic to the Tusculum Black and Gold, romping to a 26-0 victory. Morton was lost through an injury, however, and bruises and size began to tell as Milligan came back late in the next game to thrust a winning touchdown through the weary Highlanders. Wesleyan weight and smooth power proved too much for the Scots again, as the Bulldogs outscored Maryville for a 26-14 outset. Taylor, Hughes and Etheredge marched over a versatile Hiwassee Tiger in the out-of-conference battle at Madisonville. The sports event of the year occurred as the spirit of homecoming rivalry aided the scrapping Highlanders to outdo themselves against the strong Carson-Newman Eagles. Weight and odds didn't stop the Scots, and they came so close to winning that the referee's arms started up on a thrilling thrust by J. D. Hughes that stopped inches short of the goal. Maryville scored as Hughes tossed a pass into the end zone and Etheredge's arms. The King game came as an anticlimax to the Highlanders—battered from the Carson-Newman game. Holding gallantly for 57 minutes, Maryville went down to a 13-0 defeat. The story was similar at Teachers, as the cripples continued to pass and fight, but opened up on defense. Maryville's final home game and last conference stand against Cumberland eased the hurt of the Teachers' catastrophe. Hughes scored twice and Baird covered 152 yards of Lawyer territory as the Scots took an easy victory 20-0. In a post-season game against the Newberry Indians, the Scotties showed their stuff offensively, despite a decisive 40-13 score against them.

LETTERMEN OF 1939

Captain James Etheredge combined the characteristics of the '39 lettermen. Fast, light, hard, and scrappy, he added love for good ball playing, pep, and a lot of chatter to make an ideal leader. Captain "Joe" was the bulkhead of the offense this year, and an all-conference end for two years. Arnold Kramer, alternate captain, prompted the name of "one-man line" because of his headwork and dependability that rewarded him with all-conference honors. "Nig" Wilburn, one of the best defensive centers in the conference, finishes a brilliant three years on the team with this season. At guard, E. B. Smith had a big year. Amiable and hard working, Smith is a cog in the forewall that's hard to move. Another senior, Kindred, is a steady man, powerful in line plunges and plenty good at opening up opposition for Scottie runs.

Big on the horizon of '40 Highlander hopes is Captain-elect J. D. Hughes, and his alternate, midget quarterback, Scott Honaker. Hughes, a pugnacious driving fullback, held the weight of the running attack this year. His tackling was superb, and his blocking vicious. It was his churning legs that seemed to carry the Scotties along when nothing else would work. Honaker, a master field general in his own rights, added deadeye punting to his other duties. Scrappy blocking back, George Morton, although hurt in the second game of the season, is to be commended on his determination to play ball. At tackle, "Blondy" Henschen played outstanding ball. Another tackle, Tipton, stood out as the hardest charging man in the line.

Outstanding frosh of the year was high-stepping Lloyd Taylor; long, lanky and loosehipped.

Paul Sieber, Glenn Gamble, Tom Cragan, Joseph Swift, Mgr., Norman Hooker, Jack Kramer, James Witt

his open field work gave our opponents plenty of trouble. At guard McCurry, when he was mad, couldn't be stopped. Paul Sieber, big guard, made his position strong with speed. Gamble, a reserve this year, proved himself rugged and ready for a starting berth. Cragan played an all-around good game when needed. Hooker was a utility footballer who stepped into the shoes of stellar Scots and did a good job of filling them. Jack Kramer is expected to go places next year. Jimmy Witt, another pony back played fine football when called on, and completes our list of lettermen. Manager Swift, one of the few two-year managers to serve the team, carried on in his usual competent manner. Business-like and likeable, Joe deserves praise for his role of the original forgotten man of football.

HONAKER

The 1940 basketball team, runners-up for conference honors, showed great fight and heart in playing inspired ball whenever their skill failed to be enough for victory. Dropping their first conference game to Milligan, defending champions of '39, the Highlanders make a surprise comeback that kept the fans on their feet all season. Every game played on the Maryville hardwood was won, after the early defeat. Only three other games were lost by the fast Highlanders, one to the winners of the conference crown, Lincoln Memorial.

The season was featured with two climaxes, one as Maryville downed the leading Railsplitters by a 33-31 score, and the other as the Scots gained revenge on Milligan. Milligan has kept the Highlander quintet out of the league lead for the three years. On the Buff court, sheer determination brought about a last-minute win.

Maryville met and defeated two out-of-conference rivals this year in Hiwassee and Emory and Henry. East Tenn. Teachers, Carson-Newman and Tusculum were other conference teams who could not cope with the accuracy of the Highland sharpshooting, or the speed and smoothness of their teamwork.

Coach Honaker turned out a team this year that was feared by all opponents for their speed and deceptive ball handling. No team in the conference could score as fast as the Scots when they were "on." A great deal of the scoring was due to the accurate hand of Captain

BASKETBALL SEASON

Etheredge. Etheredge was described as being a "team man, great on defense, and good for 15 or 20 points a game." Etheredge is a senior, and finishes a sparkling career on the boards.

A triad of midgets made the Highlanders unique. Bill and "Baby" Baird, paired with Scott Honaker, accounted for a great deal of the Maryville speed and scrappiness. "Baby" had one of his most successful seasons; he was the spark of enthusiasm and brilliance that set off many a rally. Lloyd Taylor, freshman star, completed the list of regulars. Three towering reserves, Husk, Menning, and Morrow, stood by, showing great form in filling the shoes of the regular quintet.

STATE CHAMPIONS

The 1939 track team under the expert tutelage of Coach Robert Thrower captured for the first time in the history of Maryville, the Tennessee intercollegiate championship. Not only did the Scotty track squad win the State title, but also won for the third time, the Smoky Mountain track crown. In addition to these two major championships, the Highland cindermen defeated the University of Tennessee for the first time in a dual meet. Outstanding among the schools that fell before the fleet Scotties at the state meet were Vanderbilt, Tennessee, Sewanee, Southwestern, and T. P. I.

Records fell this year wherever the Highlanders ran. Six new college marks fell before Sutton, Orr, Etheredge, Baird, Lloyd, and Steakley. In addition conference records were set in the relay, middle distances, hurdles, and discus by Maryville men. A new state record in the high jump was set by Etheredge, who despite a rain that made jumping difficult, cleared the bar at six feet, one and three-quarters inches.

Lettermen were Weldon Baird, William Baird, Mooney, Steakley, Lloyd, Sutton, Orr, Davies, Rae, Etheredge, Husk, Gray, Tipton, Nicely, and Franklin, manager.

THE 1939 SQUAD

The 1939 team did big things last season with the inexperienced nine built around Wilburn, Honaker, and Hughes. They won 12 games and lost 10 to the strongest teams in and out of the state. Maryville stood high in conference play with a 500 per cent average and toppled the conference champs during their series.

The booming bat of Wilburn and his south-paw pitching was the sensation of the season. Hughes at third had a big year; Kindred, Headrick and McGaha completed the heavy end of the Scotty scoring machine. Shelfer, Russell, Cragan and Etheredge complete the list of let-termen.

BASEBALL SEASON

STATE CHAMPIONS

The Maryville College wrestlers scored victories over all opponents to win the 1940 intercollegiate state title. Coach Thrower's matmen have carried away high honors in state wrestling perennially with ten championships to their credit. The champions marked up a record of six wins in seven matches.

The Scots opened the season with a brilliant victory over King College, and then followed with successive wins over Vanderbilt, Knoxville "Y," King again, and the University of Tennessee. Vanderbilt edged Maryville when the Highlanders journeyed to Nashville for the only defeat suffered by the Scotties.

Several of the matmen had perfect records against all competition. Captain Hal Henschen, going out of his class consistently to wrestle heavyweight, proved himself a real champion by not dropping a match. Evaul, 118 pounder, earned himself the title of undefeated state champion in his class. Everett, one of Maryville's most aggressive wrestlers also finished the season with a perfect record in the 165-pound division. Other lettermen were Hahn, a smart and fast man on the mat; McDaniels, 135-pound flash; Schreiber, who is the squad's only senior; Baptiste, who was out several meets with a bad shoulder; Culver, 145 pounder; Galloway, in the 135-pound class; and Wilde, another lightweight.

THE 1940 SQUAD

TENNIS TEAM . . .

Handicapped by the loss of Coach Fischbach, the 1939 tennis team showed fine form in winning four meets of their eight in conference play. The squad was built around one letterman, Paul Akana, who showed great improvement and style in his No. 1 post. Dave Kidder had a big year, scoring wins in nearly all of his late season matches. Gastrock, Morgan, Stevenson, McKinnon and Felfnor, manager, made up the rest of the team.

The 1940 swimming team had the most ambitious schedule in their history, meeting such teams as Clemson, Tennessee, Kentucky Teachers, Concord, Berea, Auburn, and Tusculum. Several new records were established and with only three lettermen, Heydinger, Craine, and Ritzman, graduating, the squad looks forward to an even better season next year. Lettermen were: Findlay (Captain), Cross, Lee, Heydinger, Craine, Akana, Mize, Ritzman, and Wright.
